

Formby Urban District Council

Tree Preservation Order (No1) 1966

Relating to the preservation of trees
on the lands of "Ranslett House"
Church Road.

Council Offices,
Freshfield Road,
Formby.

BRW/LR

FORMBY URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL
TREE PRESERVATION ORDER 1988. No.1.

| SCALES | 2500 | 500 |
|---------------|------|-----|
| LOCATION PLAN |      |     |
| SITE PLAN     |      |     |

FIRST SCHEDULE

TREES SPECIFIED INDIVIDUALLY

(encircled in black on Map)

None

TREES SPECIFIED BY REFERENCE TO AN AREA

(within a dotted line on map)

| No. on Map. | Description                                                                                                                                          | SituationPlots referred to are OrdnanceSurvey Plot numbers on 25" sheetLancashire XC4. (Edition of 1927) |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| A.1         | The several birch, white poplar, mountain ash, Japanese cherry Lombardy poplar, sycamore and elm trees standing in the area Numbered A.1 on the map. | In plot No. 425.                                                                                                     |

WOODLANDS

None